

WEEK 3 OF 4 · Spirit

Script 3: The River (Flow State)Theme: Moving Without Hesitation

Rationale: The flow state means moving beyond the obstacles of hesitation. When a river flows down a mountain, it does not stop when it hits a rock. It flows around it instantly. This script trains that same quality of continuous, adaptive movement.

Request that students find their meditation stance. Remind students of the "out."

"The final step of the Spirit is 'Flow.' When a river flows down a mountain, does it stop and think when it hits a rock? No. It flows around it instantly.

Settle in. I want you to imagine your energy is like water. Fluid. Unstoppable.

Imagine you are moving through your forms or a fight. You encounter an obstacle — a block, a strike, a mistake. Instead of freezing, imagine yourself flowing around it like water flows around a stone. (Pause for 20 seconds.)

You don't stop. You don't hesitate. You just adapt. Feel that sense of continuous movement in your mind. You are not rigid like a stone; you are powerful like the river.

Sit with this feeling of unstoppable flow for three more breaths. (Pause for 20 seconds.) When you are ready to bring that flow onto the mats, open your eyes."
